THE TOWN OF KIRK CHANGES ITS NAME.

THE NEW TOWN WILL HERE-AFTER BE CALLED SANTA FE.

RAILROADS ARE BREEDING TROUBLE.

Attempting to Boon Favorite Towns—The Ponca Townsite Company—Affairs at Perry—Strip News.

People in the strip are settling down to everyday life. Happy, indeed, would they be for a day's rainfall. But they will hold to that which is good until their "rain prayers" are answered by the good Lord and J. Sterling Morton.

The new town of Kirk held an election yesterday afternoon and changed the name of the town to Santa Fe. Colonel R. Bowman of Garnett, Kan., was elected mayor. That the election is legal is a matter of much doubt, as the law requires that three weeks notice must be given and a petition sent to the governor of Oklahoma to hold a special election. Kirk is picking up, although the water question is still a serious matter.

The Ponca townsite company has at last arranged with four holders of quarter sections for a townsite, and the holders of 82 certificates are flocking there to be present at the drawing Thursday noon. The company put surveys to work this morning to lay the town off in lots. It will give every holder of a certificate a lot and then have enough left to sell and pay for the land, besides laying out parks and a large public square. Every claim about Ponca has half a dozen claimants.

Jacob Sorenson, a young man from East Saginaw, Mich., cut his throat from ear to ear yesterday at Perry. He got a lot Saturday afternoon and dreamed of the money he would make out of it, but it was contested by several men before night. He had spent every cent he had on earth to get out here and get in the race. He was sick and discouraged but could stand it, but when his lot was contested he was ready to quit.

A telegram was received today from Secretary Hoke Smith, stating that the claims of all those who made the run from the Osage country and the south line of the Chillicothe reservation would not be considered valid. This will invalidate the claims of a large number of claimants who were granted permission by Lieutenant Caldwell, commanding the troops here, to go through the Chillicothe reservation, and to make the run from the south side.

Scorching weather, hot winds and dust storms prevail in the Cherokee strip. And the settlers are again suffering under torturing conditions. Water is still very scarce and in most places, being sold for 3 cents a glass or 5 a barrel. The townships in which the railroads are interested, have free water, supplied by the roads in tank cars. The government townships of Enid, Perry and Pond Creek, which are being boycotted by the roads, are forced to depend on shallow wells and stagnant streams for water supplies. Building operations continue, and frame houses are fast replacing the tents.

Rainmaker Jewell, at Pond Creek, is doing his best to coax rains from the clouds, and his efforts are supplemented by the prayers of the settlers. So far all efforts have been unsuccessful.

AFFAIRS AT POND CREEK.

The New Town Has a Population of One Thousand People.

Pond Creek has a population of 1,000 enterprising, industrious people. The Wichita town company was successful in obtaining a valuable piece of land for its stockholders. Just north is the Indian allotment purchased by Charles Kani, John W. Nyas and John V. Moffet. On the west of this is the Hutchinson town company's quarter, dotted with white tents. Just south of this and adjoining the Wichita quarter is the Rock Island's place of property.

The people are imbued with the idea that this town will be another Wichita. The citizens think that they can capture the county seat at the

AN EXCITING FIGHT.

HOT TIMES IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TO STOP FILIBUSTERING METHODS.

The Democrats Virtually Spring Closure on the Republicans—Ex-Speaker Reed in a Towering Rage—Many Exciting Scenes on the Floor The Election Repeal Bill Is Finally Reported.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—

The decree of King Caucus dominated all personal considerations in the house yesterday, and the Democratic majority acted as a unit in ending the filibustering fight that had blocked all legislation in the lower chamber for a week.

When the house met the benches were crowded with resolute Democrats. The committee on rules had held a meeting over the protest of the Republican members, ex-Speaker Reed and Mr. Burrows, and had decided to report, if necessary, a rule that would disarm the filibustering Republicans. The caucus had resolved that the Democrats should sit in continuous session until the bill repealing the federal election laws should be reported.

As soon as the journal had been read Mr. Reed of California asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury to know how many ounces of silver had been purchased under the Sherman law in July and August, and also what amount of silver had been offered for sale during these months, and if the government had not purchased the 1,000,000 ounces required by law, to know under what authority the secretary had acted. Mr. Reed objected and thereon the struggle began.

Mr. Burrows moved to dispense with the call of committee reports, and immediately General Catchings, presented his report, which provided that no other business should be in order until the call of the committee on the one side, supported by Mr. Reed, and the speaker on the other. The members crowded the area in front of the speaker's desk and the galleries listened intently. But the subtle blade of the Michigan leader went down before the broadsword of the Georgia speaker. The speaker overruled the point of order, pointing out that the committee on rules could originate orders of business for the house just as the speaker on appropriations could originate appropriations. The decision was received with loud Democratic applause. Mr. Burrows promptly appealed against the decision of the chair, and Mr. Fitch of New York, as promptly moved to lay that motion on the table. Mr. Burrows sought to increase the parliamentary tangle by moving pending Mr. Fitch's motion, that the house take a recess for one hour. Mr. Catchings raised the point of order that, pending action on the report from the committee on rules, only one motion was in order. Mr. Burrows was also to make an argument against the point raised by Mr. Catchings, during which the speaker instructed the clerk to read the order.

"I object," shouted Mr. Reed, again and again, standing in the aisle, his big frame shaking like an enraged lion. But the speaker only pounded the desk with his gavel and ordered the clerk to proceed. The hot blood of partisanship was coursing through the veins of the house and the confusion grew worse.

"Nothing can be gained by ordering the clerk to read a report when he has no right to do it," cried Mr. Reed defiantly. He then went on impassionately to denounce the action of the speaker.

"The speaker decided that the report of the committee on rules was receivable, by a ruling," he said, raising his voice impressively, "which is the most surprising error made in legislative history. [Democratic cheers.] Oh, you have got to force your action, he continued, turning fiercely on the Democratic majority.

"We're ready," a chorus of voices shouted back.

"The speaker decided contrary to the decisions of all other speakers," he went on.

"Which speaker?" inquired Mr. Fitch.

"He decided," Mr. Reed continued, not deigning to reply, "that the committee can originate legislation."

The fight continued all afternoon, the Republicans stubbornly contesting every step, but the Democrats were able by hard work to muster a bare majority and carry their point. At 4:13 it was apparent that the end of the fight would be that the federal election bill would be reported, despite the desperate dilatory tactics of the opposition.

Finally the motion on the adoption of the report of the committee on rules was carried by a vote of 176 to 91 and the house adjourned.

CLOSURE STRICT AND FULL.

The Fight Which the House May Find Itself Unable to Resist.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The committee on rules of the house is preparing to report, if it finds it to be necessary, a rule which provides that, upon its adoption, the clerk shall call the roll of members and, pending that roll motion shall be entertained. The rule is in the nature of a stick closure, intended to prevent filibustering against the report of the federal election bill, as under its provisions, no motion is admissible while the committee are called to make their reports, not even a motion to adjourn.

The drought broken in Iowa. Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 21.—The drought, which has lasted for two months, was broken this morning by a light fall of rain, with prospects of heavy showers before night.

POLYGAMY BARRED.

World's Parliament of Religions Refuses to Listen to a Defense of It.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The harmony that has characterized the sessions of the world's parliament of religions since the opening day was broken for the first time yesterday. Scores of professing Christians have listened without demur and, as a matter of fact, with absolute interest to the advocacy of Buddhism, Confucianism, Zoroastrianism and other isms, but they drew the line at polygamy, and when from the platform it was declared that a polygamist could also be a Christian they lifted up their voices in indignant protest.

The gentleman who thus put his foot in it was Mohammed Russell Alexander Webb, and his topic was "The Spirit of Islam." Amid a babel of protests from feminine and masculine throats he went on to say that polygamy was a matter of conditions only. Once he was opposed to it, but now he knew it could be beneficial. It was necessary, however, to understand it, and no one was qualified to judge who did not know its theory and prejudices. The people in this country were not qualified to judge of considerations existing in another. A man could be a good and pure man and practice polygamy if it was in the proper spirit.

A mighty protest, louder than all the rest combined, went up at this juncture, but, nothing daunted, the speaker went on to say that if they knew as much of the subject as he did they would know that a polygamist could be a Christian, provided he did not manifest a spirit of sensuousness. This time the protest was so vehement that the speaker concluded he had said enough, and with a final defiance to the effect that they were condemning something that they knew nothing of, he switched off to a talk on Mohammedanism. This, also, he claimed, was not understood, due largely to the fact that there was no English history of Mohammed that was not full of prejudice and error.

No Time for Free Thinkers. CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—President Bonney, chief of the world's fair congress auxiliary, has refused to allow the international congress of free thinkers the use of the art institute, the new famous structure in which the parliament of religions is being held. Mr. Bonney says he will not sanction the use of the hall by any body likely to criticize the church or drag the name of the Creator in the mire. The free thinkers have secured another hall, however, and will meet October 1.

Mashed His Head to a Pulp. PITTSBURGH, Kan., Sept. 21.—While the miners were ascending from the Santa Fe shaft at Frontenac, one of them, James Halliday, jumped from the cage, and falling short of a catch, he struck his head on the bottom of the shaft, striking on his head and shoulders, mashing his head to a pulp and killing him instantly. He was a son of Luke Halliday, the man who died so mysteriously last summer after attempting a miners' meeting in Pittsburgh.

Fever Adds Its Terrors. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 21.—A special from Savannah, Ga., says: "Fever has added its terrors to the already overflowing cup of misery of the unfortunate dwellers on the sea islands on the coast of South Carolina. Hundreds of people are reported sick on these islands as a result of the stench and filth of the dead bodies left unburied."

Will Employ Only Americans. MCKEESPORT, Pa., Sept. 21.—The hard times are not bringing unmixed ill to the workmen of this city. A report is current to the effect that none but American citizens will hereafter be given work at the big plant on the National rolling mills. The refusal of employment to many Hungarians at the mill recently is in line with this policy.

LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 21.—While running full speed down Mount Pleasant hill in the southern part of the city, motor car 99 ran into a wagon containing four persons, throwing them out, wrecking the car and wagon and killing William Esemulter. Jack Geist received serious injuries of the back and hips, also internally. He will die.

Greer of Muskogee; marshal, J. H. Medley of Kugler, Ok.

Duel Between Officers. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 21.—Detective George Ryga and Constable Billy Sulan, peace officers, fought an impromptu duel with pistols in W. H. Christie's saloon on Missouri avenue, about 10 o'clock last night. Six shots, according to reliable witnesses, were fired. Not a single ball took effect.

Fifty of Water Now. ALVA, Ok., Sept. 21.—The first great event in a new town was celebrated at Alva yesterday in the sinking of the first well. Water was found in inexhaustible quantities, soft as rain water and more as snow at a depth of thirty feet.

SEVEN MEN KILLED.

Twenty Others Wounded, Some Fatally.

AWFUL TRAGEDY AT ROANOKE, VA.

A Mob Attempted to Burn a Jail and Is Fired on by the Militia—A Colored Man Killed and a Woman and the Citizens Attempted to Lynch Him—The Mayor Ordered the Shooting.

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 21.—Robert Smith, a negro, yesterday induced Mrs. Henry Bishop, wife of a well-to-do farmer, to accompany him into an empty house. He then locked the door and, drawing a razor, demanded her money, and upon her refusal to do so, pounded her into insensibility with a brick and left her for dead. Mrs. Bishop soon regained consciousness and told of the outrage. Smith was placed in jail and a crowd soon formed, threatening to lynch him, but were finally persuaded to disperse by the mayor.

The crowd gathered around the jail again and kept increasing as night approached. At 5 o'clock the Roanoke light infantry marched to the jail by orders of Mayor Trout. Guards were posted and the streets in the immediate vicinity cleared. After dark the crowd was increased by 100 men from the vicinity of the woman's home, headed by Mrs. Bishop's son, a fireman on the Norfolk and Western railroad.

At 8 o'clock portions of the mob battered at the side door of the jail, where the militia and Mayor Trout had retired. The shooting was commenced by the mob, and the militia were then ordered to return the fire, and a volley of about twenty-five rifles was poured into the mob. Seven men were killed by this fire and twenty wounded, some of them fatally.

During the excitement caused by the volley the prisoner was taken from the jail by an officer and escorted. The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and the offices of nearby physicians. The militia then dispersed and left the scene as quietly as possible.

The following is a list of the dead as far as known at present: Dead—S. A. Vick, hotel proprietor; Will Sheets, fireman on the N. & W. railroad; Charles Whitmore, conductor on the N. & W. railroad; J. B. Tyler, blue rider; George White, shot through the leg and died; W. Jones, engineer on the N. & W. railroad; John W. Mills, distiller, blue rider.

Injured—George Sottles, of Norton, mortally wounded; Otto Falls, shot through the body, will die; W. H. Eddie, shot through the leg and died; Nelson, leg off; Leroy White, shot in back; J. K. McShee, shot in the leg; Shepherd, shot in the leg; E. J. Small, shot in the abdomen; George O. Monroe, shot in head; Frank Mills, shot in leg.

THREE DEAD BODIES. Sensational Tragedy in Which a Woman and Two Men Figure. LONDON, Sept. 21.—A sensational tragedy has just occurred in this city, the result of which was the death of three persons, one of them a woman. The other two were men supposed to be rivals for the friendship of the woman, but this is mere conjecture, as all three died almost instantly.

Daisy Montague, a ballet girl who has been employed at the Empire, left the theater at 1 o'clock this morning for home. She was met by a man, and when near Kings Cross the pair were stopped by a second man. Just what passed between the three is not known. They talked in loud and angry tones and attracted the attention of passers-by.

Suddenly one of the men pulled a revolver and shot the woman, killing her almost instantly. He then shot the other man dead, and afterward turned the weapon upon himself. When the police arrived they found three dead bodies.

Officers Worried by Thieves. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 21.—An armed posse has left Mackinac Island on a steamer to capture the supposed postoffice thieves who are trying to escape in a sail boat. Officers on a tug sighted three men in a boat and a running fire was kept up between them resulting in the wounding of the man in each boat. The one in the sailing craft being fatally hurt, it is thought. The officers found the odds too great for them and finally returned to Mackinac Island for reinforcements.

A Physician's Horrible Crime. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The police are looking for Dr. Eugene West, who, they think, is responsible for the death of Miss Adelle Gilmore, the young woman whose head was found floating in the bay. The police have a theory that Dr. West performed a criminal operation on the young woman, which resulted in her death and that in order to conceal the evidence of his crime he sent the body up and threw it into the bay.

Played the Races and Died. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 21.—Nilton Boswell played the races and died. After losing at the races and track here $7,000 of his wife's money, and $3,000 of his own, he disappeared from his home last night and this morning his farewell letter was received by his wife. He left his affairs in order and full instructions as to the best method to realize most upon his assets. The river was his road to death.

An Italian Ship Founders. PARIS, Sept. 21.—A dispatch from Cetta in the department of Hérault, says that violent storms struck that place yesterday evening, doing much damage to buildings and shipping in the harbor. Several persons were killed and many wounded. The Italian ship Gloria d'Italia foundered during the gale.
